VICTORIA.

MELBOURNE, MONDAY.

An endeavour is to be made by the Government to bring the business of Parliament to a close this week. The measures to be abandoned will probably include the Commonwealth Bill. Before the session closes the Treasurer will take an opportunity of obtaining authority for levying Treasury taxes by the means of two bills introduced on the London money market. This provision is deemed advisable in case it is found impracticable to place the first instalment of the six million loan.

The Defence Department has received information that the torpedo boat recently constructed by Yarrow and Co. left England for Victoria on the 1st instant.

BOURKE, MONDAY.

The poll for the Bourke elections was officially declared at 3 o'clock to-day by the returning officer, Mr. Libby, as follows:—Waddell, 1337; McDonald, 1077; informal, 25. Only a few persons were present. Mr. McDonald returned thanks to those who voted for him, and Mr. Frank Blaxland did that for Mr. Waddell.

The weather is hot and dry, with every appearance of a drought. There is a deal of sickness in town.

CARLIA, MONDAY.

The Butter Dairy Company, Mount Macedon, has accepted tenders for the erection of machinery by a Sydney firm, and expects to start operations shortly. A new building is in course of erection.

COBAL, MONDAY.

James Henry Parker, formerly of Cobal, and a prominent holder of local uppers, appeared before the Coroner's Bench on warrant, and was held under the 27th section of the Criminal Law Amendment Act with leaving his wife without necessary food for a period of two years. The accused was committed to the Coroner's Bench, to be held on the 27th January. The case created great interest.

ADELAIDE, MONDAY.

The following extracts are made from a private letter sent by Mr. Whiffield Mills, the well-known surveyor and explorer, dated The Camp, near Golden Gully, the 23rd November. Mr. Mills met Mr. David Lindsay's party, and writes as follows:—“From the facts I have learned, the camp was in a very poor state, though the winter was severe, having in 1883 pealed to Fort Mueller in my hour of need only to find the spring dry, I most emphatically say Mr. Lindsay has done well, and no man could have done better. This sandy desert consists of sandhills and sand-rock ridges, that occasionally form water-courses, but are mostly dry. In some cases, and in seasons like those between 1870 and 1875 these sandhills are often mistaken for springs, and travelling through this desert even with horses is comparatively easy work; but let me assure you these sandhills or so-called springs once dry, and nothing but sand, are good roads, and depend on them again, and travel would be difficult.”

NEWCASTLE, MONDAY.

On Saturday evening the Newcastle branch of the New South Wales Railway Institute gave a public entertainment at the School of Arts, Wickham. The chair was taken by Mr. H. McLeish, Secretary for Railways.

On the arrival of the steamship Narrabeen yesterday, two men were given into custody on a charge of having stolen from the person of Maria Bailey a purse containing £3 16s 6d. The men were searched and nothing was found on them. They were placed in the lockup, the prosecutor stating they had acted in a very suspicious manner towards her. At a late hour last night the chief steward of the steamer called at the police station and stated that the purse had been found in the woman's cabin. The release of the accused was asked for, but the police were powerless even to liberate them on bail.

Wilson and James, charged with the alleged robbery on the Narrabeen last night, were acquitted this afternoon. The Bench thought there were suspicious circumstances, but not sufficient to justify their complaint. Mr. James Rickard, head master, and the accomplished Miss Pearce. The presentation of the University medals, certificates, &c., takes place on Thursday, Mr. Alexander Brown.
